

Academic Excellence Committee charts way forward for School

Following its findings at the inaugural meeting of the Parents Teachers Association, the Chief Jibola Awoseyi- led Academic Excellence Committee has unveiled new measures to restore excellence in our alma mater.

The measures include a new list of offences and punishments to be drawn up by the principal for approval by the PTA and the Board of Governors.

To ensure that the proposed disciplinary regime is in line with the laws of the Osun State Government, the Board of Governors and the AEC will interact with top officials of the Ministry of Education to find out the policy on admissions, promotions and discipline.

Noting that the school is in dire need of no fewer than 22 teachers, the committee and the board are working together on the recruitment of new teachers.

To widen their scope and develop passion for knowledge, the board and the committee agreed that library hour must be on the school's timetable and equipment that will facilitate students' access to Internet facilities should be provided.

The PTA meeting was attended by chairman of the AEC who doubles as the second vice president, SJOBA, Chief Jibola Awoseyi, first vice president, SJOBA, Dr. Jide Makinde, chairman, Board of Governors, Engr.Ayo Alabi and the chairman of the PTA, Chief Awotidoye.

Representing the old boys were Prof.Saka Opeloye and Mr. Dele.Omifare.

Others at the meeting were the principal, vice principals, teachers, students and their parents.
