On Sunday 1st April 2012 there was a live radio program on Osun radio featuring Chief Dejo Adejobi and other Old Boys'. It was a live phone-in programme which was well coordinated and received.

The road leading to the school was graded by the Chairman of Ife Central Local Government Dr Olaiya, a few days to the ceremony.

A full page paid advertisement indicating the schedule of all the programmes came out on page 51 of The Punch newspapers of Thursday 5th April 2012. Various radio announcements and banners were placed to showcase all the activities for publicity strategies.

On Thursday 5th April, 2012, Career talk, Drama and quiz competition was organized for select secondary schools in Ile-Ife at the school hall. This was coordinated by the Principal Mr Makinde Olufemi, the Vice Principal Mr Ayara, Mr Marcus Fayemi, and Dr Saka Opeloye. It was a huge success with the details presented below.

The program started by 11.00 am in the main hall of the administrative building with prayer from Mr.O. Ojogeade. The invited schools were ushered in after all the students of the school were seated. The special Guests were introduced and were invited into the high table. These include : Chief Layi Oyawole, Chief Abioye OLatubosun, and Mr. Oluwasegunfunmi Awoyefa- who not only gave the reminiscence of the past but delved into the past history of the school, the present efforts of the old boys to provide a conducive environment for them to excel, and projected into a brighter future of the school with the cooperation of all and sundry.

In attendance were the National President - Chief Sunday Bolaji, Johnian Bayo OLogbenla, Johnian Fayemi Marcus, Johnian Benson Elubode, Lawyer Dokun Odemuyiwa, Johnian Sunday Awowole and a host of others too much to mention.

The program proper started with career talks given by the specialists in various fields of human endeavour.

In attendance were Junior and Senior Secondary School students of :

1. St. David's Grammar School, Ile- Ife.
2. Ife Anglican Grammar School, Ile-Ife.
3. Our Lady High School, Modakeke, Ile-Ife.
4. Ife City College, Ile-Ife.
5. Ibikunle Lawal College, Ile-Ife.
6. Ife Girls High School, Ile-Ife, and the host,
7. St. John's Grammar School, Ile-Ife.

The career talks were given by professionals in different areas like Medicine, Architecture Law, Accounting, Social Studies and Education. They include among others; Dr.Olayeni Olaolu Richard of the Dept. of Economics of O.A.U. Ife., Mr. Adedini- Dept. of Demography and social statistics, Dr. Ayinde - Dept. of Psychology, O.A.U. Ile-Ife, Mr.P.K. Olayeni - Dept. of Architecture, O.A.U., Ile- Ife, Mr. M.A. Omoyemiju a seasoned Councilor at the Dept. of Educational Foundation and Counseling. Each of the specialists emphasized the need for the students to be very serious in their studies, and erase from their mind that one course/ subject is difficult. They also listed requirements for qualification for entry higher institution for the various courses while stressing the need for further Mathematics for any Engineering course. Each of the specialist spent about 20 minutes each.

Only eight of the invited schools presented candidates for the debate competition. The theme of the debate was “The Standard of Education will rise if Schools were returned to the Missionaries”

Four Senior Schools spoke in favour while four spoke against. Those that spoke against won and both groups were awarded their deserved prizes accordingly.

Poems and Ewi were rendered by the host school as an interlude and this lasted for about 40 minutes. Snacks were later served to the Special guests, invited schools, competitors, their Staff and the students of this school.

The Quiz competition followed immediately after the snacks. Four Schools showed up for the competition out of the Eleven Schools that were invited. However the competition ended with Junior School of Ibikunle Lawal College Ile-Ife emerging first and St. John's Grammar School (Junior), Ile-ife emerging second and third position went to Our Ladys High School, Modakeke Ile-Ife.

The Drama could not hold as a result of time constraint . Vote of Thanks and Prayer were said simultaneously at 5.35p.m.

On Friday 6th April, 2012, there was tour of the school for inspection followed by Jumat Service at the Central Mosque at Enuwa Ile-Ife, near the Ooni's palace coordinated by Dr Saka Opeloye. It was well attended and light refreshment was organized for old boys' present at the school after the service. The detailed programme is highlighted below.

The Jumat service for the commemoration of the Golden Jubilee of St. Johns Grammar School was held at the Ife Central Mosque on the 6th of April 2012. The programme started at exactly 11:15am. It was well attended by both the Muslim faithful's and members of Old Students Association. Present among the dignitaries that attended was the former Minister of Water Resources Engr. Bashir Awotorebo, the Balogun Musulumi of Osun State, Chief Ibikunle Lawal, Chief Sooko Karim Adefioye and the State Chairman of NLC, Comrade Saka Adeshiyan to mention but few.

After the introduction of guests, the President, Chief Sunday Bolaji addressed the congregation and the Deputy Imam Sheik Abdul Semiu Ahmed led the guests and the clerics in supplication which was centred on the school, its Alumni both at home and in diaspora, the present students and future endeavor of the school.

Some of the Special guests in their various speeches commended the founder of the Institution, Rev. Father Cloutier and admonish the Alumni to raise the standard of the School as a way to immortalize him.

It should be noted that Dr. S. A. Opeloye anchoring the Programme for the Old Student Association, had earlier sent invitation to Muslim dignitaries as guests on behalf of the President and entire members of the Association. A donation of ₦20, 000:00 was also given to the mosque.

The mosque, on its part, provided both the programme pamphlet and the chairs as its contribution for the ceremony. The letter of invitation is reproduced below .

No amount was further incurred on the Mosque Service programme.

Dr. S.A. Opeloye

SPECIAL INVITATION TO 50TH ANNIVERSARY JUMAT SERVICE

Assalam Aleykum Waramatul-Ilahi

I write to invite you, with great pleasure, to a special Jumat service, earmarked for the Golden Jubilee Anniversary of the establishment of St. John's Grammar School, Ile-Ife .

The School was established in 1962 by a Canadian Missionary who had a great vision in nurturing and transforming the lives of young Africans to optimal potentials. Many great personalities had since establishment passed through the school. It is pertinent to note that the Proprietor, Rev, Father Cloutier, who was also the Principal for many years never discriminated against students of other creeds. It is in this spirit that the alumni deem it fit to start the week long occasion with a Jumat service.

You are therefore cordially invited, as a front line Muslim, to join other dignitaries in gracing the occasion at the IFE CENTRAL MOSQUE on the 6th April, 2012.

The ceremony, which will be presided over by the Chief Imam Sheik Idris Opeloye, will begin by 11.00 am and be rounded up by 1.00pm on Friday to allow for Jumat worship.

Your esteemed presence would highly be appreciated.

Thanks

Dr, Saka Adelayo Opeloye

(On behalf of the President and entire Johnian Assembly)
